Welcome Home to Cassville

On the edge of the Ozark Plateau lies a jewel of a town, Cassville, MO. It gently sits at the western gateway to Roaring River State Park, the Mark Twain National Forest and the Table Rock Lake region. Rich in history and friendly folks, Cassville offers the visitor and its citizens many opportunities. People have traveled to Cassville for years to experience the very best of the Ozarks. Superb trout fishing at Roaring River State Park is ready for visitors while employment and educational opportunities abound for a thriving family. Cassville is a great place to live, work, and play.

As you get acquainted with Cassville, you'll begin to discover why we enjoy calling Cassville home. All the modern healthcare services are available; medical, dental, chiropractic, and vision clinics, along with a fully staffed hospital offering 24-hour emergency services. At the center of our town square, you'll find our historic county courthouse surrounded by many shops and businesses serving the needs of local citizens. Drive a little further and you will see a community's commitment to its children's education. Cassville Public School's updated facilities anticipates the future demands of educating our next generation. Students may continue their educational progress locally at Crowder College. Crowder College partners with regional and state colleges, offering various degrees.

With an economy based on agriculture, industry, and tourism, it's easy to see why Cassville, MO, is a great place to live, work, and play. A reason in every season, Cassville is a great place to be. We look forward to seeing you!

Where memories & tradition meet

A virtual paradise, the magnificent hills and valley that form Roaring River State Park offer a retreat for both young and old alike. Whether it's hiking one of the many trails which cut through the park, camping in one of the three campgrounds, fishing in its premier trout stream, or picnicking along the stream, Roaring River State Park is the place to share and make memories for everyone.

Currently covering an area of over 4,000 acres, the land comprising Roaring River State Park was originally donated to the state in 1928 by Thomas Sayman and is now administered by the Missouri Department of Natural Resources. In the 1930's, the Civilian Conservation Corps (CCC) built many of the existing structures in the park from hand-chiseled stone, including the Ozark Chinquapin Nature Center and the historic CCC Lodge. The Nature Center hosts many interpretive programs and activities which includes information on many species of plant and animal life that thrive in the park and are not found anywhere else in Missouri.

Things to do

Hiking Trails

Cassville, Mark Twain National Forest, and Roaring River State Park all offer great hiking opportunities in the Ozarks. Roaring River State Park hosts over 10 miles of trails ranging from .4 mile to 3.5 miles.

Disc Golf Course

Nestled at the end of the Cassville Greenway Trail is our gorgeous disc golf course.

Restaurants

From one hungry fisherman to big families, the restaurants in Cassville have you covered! The broad mix of restaurants go beyond the major quick food chains. Pizzerias, bar and grills, family restaurants, and country cafes will fill your dining needs.

Shopping

Mother Nature doesn't always cooperate when you are trying to experience all the Ozarks has to offer. That is the perfect time to explore Cassville's shops. Shopping in Cassville can be an adventure as you go about peeking into shops where each one can offer something unique.

Hungry Hollow Brewing Co.

A small brewery in rural southwest Missouri's Hungry Hollow focusing on specialty craft beers. Crafted in a wood-fired steam brewhouse, Joe's Zucca's creations will keep you coming back for more!

Cassville Aquatic Park

There is over 7,000 square feet of water recreation including 3 water slides, a spring diving board, zero-depth entry with playground, kiddie pool, volleyball, a concession stand and shaded picnic tables and plenty of lounge chairs for relaxing.

Things to do

Cassville Golf Course

The Cassville Golf Club is well known for its beautiful bent grass greens and Bermuda fairways. This 18-hole championship golf course has been listed on Missouri's Top Public Golf Courses List. Cassville Golf Club has also gained popularity from its unique ability in catering to all different golf skill levels. From novice to professional, four separate sets of tees will ensure that the golf course in Cassville remains challenging yet fair for all golfers without discriminating on age or experience. Other amenities include banquet facilities with a large patio, pool, and kitchen for all types of gatherings.

Cassville Greenway Trail

The Greenway Trail is a scenic 2.9 mile trail maintained by the City of Cassville. The trail was created for residents and visitors of the area for hiking and biking along the city's park system. Enjoy beautiful scenery along the trail and easy access to many of the city recreational parks, playgrounds, and picnic areas. The trail extends from Rocky Edmondson Park on the northern end to the City's South Aquatic Park and Re-enactment Field on the south.

Fiber Internet

GOBEC FIBER NETWORK

With high-speed internet, especially with the speed and reliability offered by a fiber optic connection, rural populations can enjoy the same benefits as larger markets with reliable access to world markets and resources – from increased economic growth and more educational opportunities to easier access to healthcare.

More specifically, high speed internet access enables businesses in rural areas to grow their customer base and gives farmers access to “smart agriculture” technologies that help increase yields and conserve resources.

Cassville is fortunate to call itself, “Gig City.” Barry Electric Cooperative, our trusted electric cooperative, offers fiber optic internet to it’s members. goBEC Fiber Network is a subsidiary for Barry Electric. The goBEC Fiber Network is dedicated to delivering connections that allow residents in and around Cassville, Missouri to flourish and thrive whether they own a business or use internet recreationally.
